

INDIAN RED CROSS SOCIETY

Karnataka State Branch

Requirement for Panel of Faculties for teaching Professional First Aid Training

DOCTORS
Qualification	M.B.B.S passed and any medical practitioner qualified to practice modern scientific medicine and registered with State Medical Council in India

LECTURERS
Qualification	<ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ A trained nurse (having completed a 03 year course in a recognized training school and obtained the certificates) or an Army Nursing/ Assistant Nursing JCO (holding trade efficiency certificate in class I), who have obtained the Association's certificate in First Aid. Or➤ Practitioners of indigenous system of medicine who are graduates of colleges recognized by the Board of Homeopathic, Ayurvedic & Unani Systems of Medicine in a State/Union Territory. Or➤ Anybody who have obtained a Medallion of the Association and have undergone Lecturers training course can teach first aid. They must be in possession of the Associations Certificates. The application for the recognition of the Lecturers must be made by the local center, through the State Union Territory, or railway center if any, to the headquarters which h deal with each case on its merits.

NOTE: - Doctors, Nurses and the above mentioned Medical Practitioners can become Lecturers. But only Doctors can conduct examinations.

Indian Red Cross Society – Karnataka State Branch

FIRST AID UNIT

Application for Enrollment of Professional First Aid training faculty

Name (Block Letters)
Postal Address
Telephone No (Mobile/Landline) & Email
Qualification
Experience in teaching of first aid
Details of any other relevant experience

Date

Place

(Signature)